EnviroQuiet® ONE COST.

Our triple patented EnviroQuiet LVT technology is based on the formulation of an acoustic bonded rubber backing to each individual plank or tile.

ONE INSTALLATION.

A 2mm or 3mm sound reducing rubber underlayment is permanently attached to a 2mm or 3mm LVT during the manufacturing process, so it can be installed as one fully integrated product.

ONE SOLUTION.

EnviroQuiet is a singular answer to the end user community, eliminating any issues that can occur when installing LVT over a traditional sound pad.

EnviroQuiet is an industry standard for the best contribution to sound, and provides a simple sound solution of infinite design choices and endless possibilities. Choose a pattern from our exclusive Wood, Stone or Abstract Collections, and select the exact specifications you need for your next project.

EnviroQuiet 4.0 | 5.0 | 6.0 consists of the same formulation of our original product line, with the addition of a 4mm option. The new classification structure makes it easy to choose the gauge of your LVT with multiple selections for the attached rubber underlayment that provides comfort and quiet underfoot.
